We will watch Persepolis (2007), Le Temps Qu'il Reste (2009), and/or The Taste of Cherry (1997)*, with a special introduction from Farshad, an Iranian student of media and culture.

After the screening, we'll talk about the film and its wider contexts. Come to enjoy conversations with friends, along with delicious homemade hummus & guacamole.

(You're welcome to bring chips/biscuits.)
