[prose] Why should I ask about those other things?

about who I know you know about who you know I know about the occasions I hear someone talked about you about someone letting me know you mentioned me about someone telling me about you

...

Why should I care any of that

Now that I am here with you

)