[quip] How old are you ?

if you want someone to see you as who you are and love you it means that love must be about some potential because you are corrupt and that you know and for that someone to love you, they must hope for you to become good that's why love as it is that we understand as love, is only for the good, or the youth for corrupt people who are old have lost their chance or so I believe how old is old, then ? The question is how old are you ?
